GIDEONS PRESENT BIBLES TO SENIOR CITIZENS HOME HERE

On Monday evening the Lindsay Camp of Gideons presented Bibles to the Highland Crest Senior Citizens Home for the use of the residents. A large gathering of interested persons witnessed the presentation.

Gideon Jim Cooper was master of ceremonies, Chaplain Everett Davis read a suitable portion of scripture. Gideon Archie Stouffer made the presentation, Rev. Charles Dymond offered the prayer of dedication and the Superintendent of the Home, Mr. Jim Wade expressed on behalf of the board and residents their thanks for this fine donation.

Following the ceremonies, members made a tour of the building and there were many favourable comments about its beauty and utility.

The members of the Auxiliary attended the service of dedication of the Gideon Bibles on Monday evening. The service was held in the main lounge where a large crowd was gathered. After the service the Auxiliary members met in the craft room.

The auxiliary prayer opened the meeting. Mrs. Coburn welcomed all to the meeting and introduced Mr. Jim Wade, superintendent of the Home.

A certain personnel manager hires only married men. Claims they're not in such a hurry to leave the office at five o'clock.

Thieves had a field day in Mackayville over this past week end, as they broke into three homes on Sunday evening. No report has been given, on what was taken.

The three residents who had their homes entered were away at the time. The home of Mr. James Stewart was entered by a rear window, likewise the home of James Hatkoski was entered. Police said windows in both homes had locks, but were not locked. The home of Mr. Kenneth Currie was entered by forcing the back door.

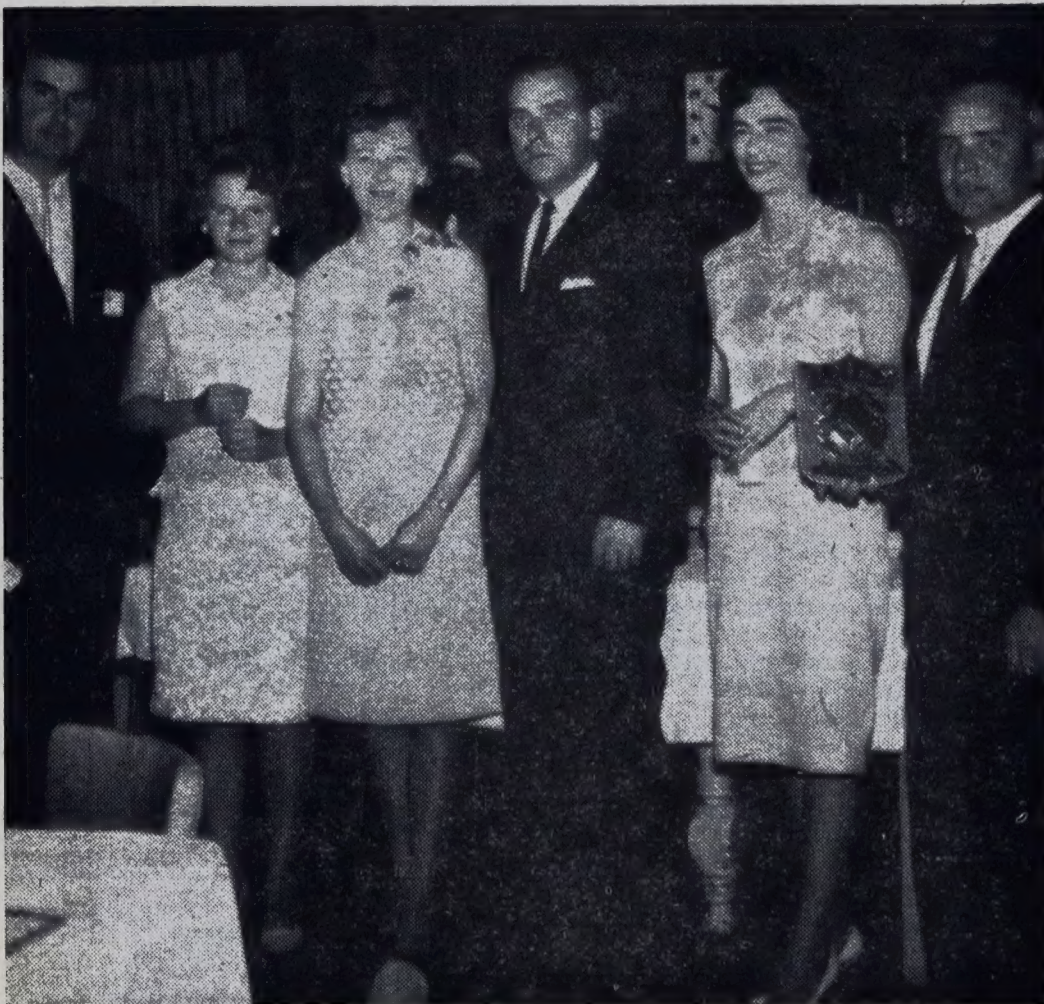

Mr. Currie was the first one to report the break ins to Police, at 9:30 p.m. on Sunday evening, after returning home.

Police told the Progress that Mr. Bert Brown from the Identification Branch, Peterborough, was called in to take finger prints.

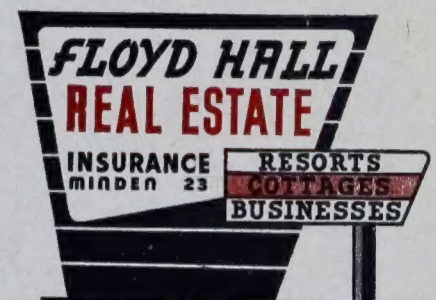

The amount of money or goods stolen was not released, until further investigation.

Police said they have a few suspects, but at press time no arrest had been made.

OPP Constable Mike Maher, investigated.

FENWICK FINCH

A couple of weeks ago we mentioned the fact that we get-mail — "of a kind" and we do — you have probably read the letter written by Mr. O. W. Flewell of Oakdale, California.

This kind of mail we like. It is rather difficult on a small paper to know whether or not our readers like us — but when someone like Mr. Flewell takes the time from a busy workday to drop us a letter and tells us what he thinks — then we feel a great reward for any effort we may have put into the paper.

Mr. Flewell — thanks again.

Over the Labor Day week-end, W. S. "Wally" Cook made quite a safari around the northernmost reaches of the county. From here to Pembroke and across to Verendrye Park, up to Val d'Or and across through Rouyn to Kirkland Lake down through North Bay to Huntsville and home again — quite a trip.

Wally did a bit of free-lance study on "coffee prices" while he was away. With two exceptions — all places were 10c a cup. The two places that charged 15c were "outfitters" located in the wilds — but then everything they sold was at an inflated price.

Thanks Wally for the additional data. Pricewise we seem to be isolated here.

Speaking of coffee — there has appeared a breach in the "Cartel" wall. One restaurant now charges 13c per cup and another sells at two for 25c. There may be a silver lining in this cloud yet.

About a year ago, George Laidlaw and his good wife Wyn moved to Fenelon Falls — last week the last link between George and Minden was broken — "For Sale" was removed from his property near the Wagon Wheel.

George will always be remembered for his skill as a magician and his untiring efforts to entertain the youngsters of the community. He will be remembered for quite a while.

"Zanoni" is very active in the "Senior Citizen's Club" in Fenelon Falls and has some ideas that might interest Minden residents. More of that later.

We learned over the week-end that our good friend Arthur Crosby has sold out his restaurant in Bobcaygeon to Ted Shea and Co. There is quite a little story behind this and the first chance we get with more space we will let you in on it.

About a week ago I had the distinct pleasure of meeting the new rector of the United Church, the Rev. "Jim" Cargo — he is going to be a real asset to the Community.

This column — owing to a shortage of space is getting more and more like the old "Uncle Wiggley" stories — a continuing sort of thing. So it is with the Rev. "Jim" I'll tell you of our meeting next week.

I'm almost afraid to mention this — after those "mystery tracks" — maybe others saw it — Ron Robinson drew it to my attention — a flashing red, green and yellow light moving around in the sky — when I first watched it, it was heading East, then suddenly it swung back and came West then headed South, then back again. It crossed quite an expanse of sky in as short a period as it takes me to tell you.

I'd better quit — I've run out of Space and the little men are here.

CREST HARDWARE

WIDEMAN'S REPRESENT MINDEN WELL

It was seven years ago that this store became known as Crest Hardware. It also looked quite different seven years ago just before the name was changed. The store was a very small one-story building, without the present extra annex to the right.

The owners of the store, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wideman, share the duties of running this store and we might say it keeps them both very busy, keeping up with their large stock and satisfying the customers.

Mr. Wideman was born in Stouffville, learned the hardware business in Barrie, where he had plans of buying a store and making Barrie his home.

The Wideman's moved to Minden in April 1964, and bought the store they are now in, only at that time it was called Highland Hardware. It was operated under this name until 1959, this is when it was changed to Crest and such alterations as a second story and the face lifting was done. The annex to the right was built on in 1961.

The store was originally owned by Mr. Mervin Dale, who sold out to Mr. Lorne Johnson, who in turn sold to Mr. Tom Dalton. Mr. Wideman bought the store off the latter mentioned. These previous owners of the store are all deceased.

Walt and wife Mable, as they are known to the people of Minden and the many summer residents we have in this district, are keen active citizens of this community, and certainly the town of Minden can be glad they came to Minden instead of starting business as they had planned to in Barrie.

Walt is an active member of the Minden Rotary Club, and an ardent member of the Rod and Gun Club. Both him and his wife can be seen curling in the winter, and golfing in the summer. When you mention hobbies, it has to be woodcarving, when one can rest his eyes on some of the beautiful pieces that Walt has carved — especially those in Birds-Eye Maple. His second love is target shooting, he has a fine collection of rifles, shot guns and pistols. After looking over his collection of targets that he has shot, we can honestly say he wins his share of shooting matches.

Crest Hardware employs two men, Mr. Loyne Cox and Mr. Frank Raycraft, as permanent staff, and hires more for part time help in the busy season.

Any community would be pleased to have such a Hardware and boast of such fine people as the Widemans.

Shown here is Mr. Walt Wideman going over some of the features of a washer, to a prospective buyer Kathy Burk.

Frank Raycraft checks over the paint supply, to make sure all lines are in stock.

WHERE DOES IT START — WHEN DOES IT END?

It's like a hot potato, what do you do about it when you get it — do you drop it although — do you struggle with it till it cools? Has it been with us all along — Is it coming at us with space age speed? Or is it old hat, with a new frill?

By now you must be wondering what I am talking about? Well Parents — pick up a magazine, glance at TV, take in a movie — and here is what you see:

SEX! SEX! SEX!

Knew that heading would catch your eye!
Knew THIS column you'd not pass by!
Confirms a point I've long suspected —
To be "read" today, writers must be sex-ed!

Sex on radio, on TV,
Sex in everything you see,
Sex in scripts, and songs, and prose,
Sex in hair cream, sex in clothes,
Sex in boats and sex in cars,
Wonder if there's sex on MARS?

Sex discussed at Home and School,
"Sexual Mores and the Golden Rule",
Sex is "in" these days, no doubt,
Old-fashioned parents, dear, are "out".
"Mother, may I go play with Bill?"
"Yes daughter dear, BUT take your pill!"

Sex in magazine and book,
Sex in "Time" and "Life" and "Look",
In McCall's, for "him and her", sir,
Even in the church "Observer"!
Paperbacks like "Fanny Hill"
May soon be classed with "Jack and Jill"!

Sexual perverts? Yes, indeed.
Condemn them? No! Respect their needs.
Publish their problems in great detail
So the kids will read them without fail!
The poor, dear souls are "sick", you see.
(I know what I'd do, were it left to me!)

Sex-words I've never heard before
Pop up in articles galore.
Hate to ask just what they mean,
But I could find out — from any teen!
Songs and dances are "erotic".
(I prefer to say "psychotic".)

In olden days, so sweet and tender,
A hallowed thing, if you remember.
How sad, to watch this generation
Turn sex into a cheap sensation!

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

September 9, 1966
Oshawa, Ontario

Dear Sir:

I am not one to sit down and write letters to the editor, I guess it is because I just hate writing letters. But this once I have to put my pen to work.

I have been holidaying in the Haliburton district for the past four years, and was one of the first Progress subscribers, I believe Bill Payne was a member of the staff at that time for it was he who sold me a subscription. Since that time I have enjoyed the paper very much, but it has only been since the paper became a weekly that I can hardly wait for it to come each week.

I subscribe to three weekly papers, and have seen and read many others, but I have to admit the Progress is without doubt the "brightest" weekly I have ever read. For instance I have not seen a weekly paper before which has three columnists namely, Fenwick Finch, Rob Robinson with sports, and of course the editors editorials.

You can be very proud of your writers, Fenwick with his wit, Robinson and his demands for better ball facilities, and the editor with his variety of editorials. Another reason the Progress stands out from other weekly papers, is the many pictures used.

I see by the mast head on the paper that Bob Beeney is still sports editor, but it has been a while since I have seen his column, he is also a good writer.

Probably most readers would not notice these things I have mentioned, and I guess I would never either, but I got my finger in the ink many years ago, when I started in a small town paper to become a printer, but gave it up. I have always had a feeling I missed my call, and still take quite an interest in newspapers.

I am sure the Minden people are proud of their paper — they have a good, one.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Oakdale, California
August 30, 1966

Mr. Fenwick Finch

Dear Sir

Your article in the August 25th issue of the Progress begins with "We get mail of a Kind".

I sincerely hope this will not be placed in that inferred category.

As a regular subscriber to the Minden Progress, I feel that the humor in your articles has added much to the paper. Your "Finch Coffee Club" is original and undoubtedly serves as a local conversational piece — pro and con.

Some three years ago, we had the pleasure of attending your Fall Fair, the first county Fair we had seen in fifty years, and needless to say it was the high point of our Ontario trip.

Next week we leave for a month in British Columbia and look forward to having Canadian soil under our feet once more.

Though, perhaps skating on thin ice, I not only agree with your comments in the last major paragraph of your last article — but would go further: Internationally, Canada is perhaps the most highly respected country in the world. It stands up for its ideals, does its own thinking, and acts accordingly. This all comes from fourth or fifth generation Canadians, not from anyone ethnic group, whose thinking might be influenced by European cultures, ill-fitted to our part of the world.

After forty years in the fair state of California, I'm proud to have first seen the light of day in your neighboring county — Victoria.

Keep up the good work.

Very truly yours,

O. W. Flewell

THE WORM DIGGERS TURN

As we go to press the airline strike in the States, has just recently ended, but you will doubtless be cheered to hear that the blood-worm diggers' strike is over. One hundred diggers laid down their shovels in Wiscasset, last week, demanding a price hike of 25c or $2.50 per 100 worms.

Since the worms are highly prized as bait by saltwater fishermen, the blood-worm dealers averted a crisis by capitulating after the diggers had been idle only 24 hours. As a result of the settlement, the wholesale price of blood-worms in New York has soared from $2.75 to $3.00 a hundred, and the cost to the fisherman is up from 80c to 90c a dozen.

Although the pay boost, which means $10 to $15 more a week to the diggers, grossly exceeds the President's anti-inflation guideposts, the White House has so far been silent. SH-H-H-H

PGA officials posted the following notice on a telephone booth situated at the first tee of the Lake-wood Country Club in an effort to maintain silence during last week's Cleveland Open: "Please do not drop money in while golfers are teeing off."

TENNIS, ANYONE?

The lot of the average man has rarely been so poignantly expressed as in this want ad appearing last week in a National Newspaper.

"Mediocre tennis player wants better player to rally twice a week, $2.50 - hours."

SORE WINNER

Quantitatively, Pete Riccetelli, 22, a lightweight from Portland, is the best fighter in the world.

He has already had 20 fights this year, which is not only more than anyone else but, according to the Ring Record Book, more than any fighter had in all of 1965. Moreover, Pete has won 19 of the 20.

Is he, then, championship material? Well, for one thing, his opponents have been some what wanting qualitatively. For another, last week, following the 20th fight, in which he gained a loudly-boomed split decision over Rocky Halliday of Wilkes-Barre, Pete went to the office of the Portland Newspaper and requested that a statement announcing his retirement be written. Said Pete: "I can't take the booing."

THEY SAID IT:

— Enzo Stuarti, Italian tenor and racing car buff, asked how he knew when to shift a borrowed Ferrari 275 GTB: "By ear, when I hear 'A Flat' from the engine, I shift."

— Bob Veale, Pittsburgh Pirates pitcher, on the relative importance of pitching and hitting: "Good pitching always stops good hitting and vice versa."

— Jim Ryun, taking his first real vacation after three dedicated years of twice-daily workouts: "You know, television is terrible."

1966 CHRISTMAS STAMPS

October 12th, 1966, has been chosen as the release date for commemorative postage stamps in two denominations to mark the Christmas season, Canada's Postmaster General Jean-Pierre Cote announced today.

The projected releases will mark the third consecutive year in which the Canada Post Office has issued specially designed stamps for Christmas. Again available in the 3c and 5c values, the 1966 issues were designed by Geoffrey Holloway, of Arnott Rogers Batten Limited of Montreal.

They feature a reproduction of a centuries old drawing "Betente Hande", or "Praying Hands", originally executed by the great German Renaissance painter, engraver, woodcut and decorative designer Albrecht Durer, who lived from 1471 to 1528.

Depicting an appropriate theme for the Christmas festive season, the drawing is a poignant representation of work-worn hands of a humble and devoted man offering thanks for blessings received.

The two stamps, the same design and small in size, will also include the Christmas Star, together with the words "Noel", "Christmas" and "Canada".

The 5c denomination is produced in orange, the 3c value in rose. They were engraved by the Canadian Bank Note Company, Ottawa. The Canada Post Office expects to produce and sell more than 320 million Christmas stamps this year.

HALIBURTON LADY KILLED IN CAR CRASH

Lindsay hospital authorities this week said the condition of three people who were hospitalized last Thursday after a car and truck crash south of Lindsay which killed two people is improving.

Killed in the accident were 53-year old Mrs. Garnet Kellett, of Haliburton, sister of Mrs. Viola Angiers of Lindsay, and 35 year old Robert Poyntz of Island Grove in the Lake Simcoe area.

Lindsay hospital authorities said that 65 year old Garnet Kellett, who was admitted in critical condition with facial lacerations, head and chest injuries, is now in satisfactory condition.

Four year old Linda Poyntz of Island Grove was admitted in serious condition with possible head and chest injuries and lacerations and is now reported to be in fair condition by Lindsay hospital authorities.

A third person injured, a pre-school aged boy, a ward of the Children's Aid Society, whose name has not been released, is reported to be in satisfactory condition.

Lindsay OPP said the total estimated damage in the crash was $4,000.

Police said the pickup truck, driven by Mr. Poyntz, was east-bound on Highway 7, proceeding toward Peterborough and the Kellett car was southbound from Lindsay, believed to be going to the Oshawa area when the two cars collided at the intersection of Highways 7 and 35, at the traffic lights.

The front end of the truck was extensively damaged and the passenger side of the car was caved in from the crash.

The two children were passengers in the pickup truck driven by Mr. Poyntz.

LINDSAY OFFERS HALIBURTON ONE DAY OF CARAVAN

The town of Lindsay, on hearing the tour of the Centennial Caravan to this area in August 1967 would not be available to Haliburton County will recommend that the fourth day of the Lindsay appearance be re-scheduled for Minden in Haliburton as a "good neighbour" gesture to the adjoining county to the north.

The official itinerary of the eight unit caravan included a four day stay at Lindsay from August 18 to 22, and one day at Bobcaygeon on Wednesday, August 23rd. If the Lindsay recommendation is acted upon, the Caravan will spend Tuesday, August 22nd, here in Minden.

ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY

Every once in a while you'll hear someone say "Why would anyone want to be a steeplejack? OrOr they might say it about a policeman or a miner or a fire fighter. People who ask questions like this can't understand what makes some men undertake dangerous and unpleasant jobs.

Nevertheless there always seems to be someone to do such jobs — and high rates of pay aren't the incentive, by any means. Perhaps the incentive comes from the challenge that such jobs offer. They are not easy. No one forces you to become a steeplejack or a miner or a policeman or a fire fighter. Men who take on these jobs are volunteers, like soldiers who come forward and offer to take part in a dangerous mission.

Basically these men are men with pride. Pride in their ability to tackle the tougher jobs. Knowing that they can do it as part of their reward. They are dependable. They are good people to have around.

It's only natural that we should find such men doing other tasks above and beyond the call of duty.

Take the fire fighter for example. There are about 40,000 of them in Canada, both professional and volunteer. Many of them spend large amounts of their spare time trying to help the unfortunate children who are victims of muscular dystrophy. The way they go about this is to raise money by means of benefit sporting events, by house to house canvasses, and by numerous other methods. They don't do this casually. They are well organized. In fact, their international union has pledged itself to the support of MD research until the disease is vanishes. To date the fire fighter of this country have raised upwards of a million and a half dollars for medical research. Scores of teams of research scientists in every major medical research centre and university in Canada have been put to work by this money — advancing the frontiers of knowledge and bringing close the day when some real hope can be given to the victims of this relentless disease.

Research into muscular dystrophy is not the easiest kind of research. There may be none more difficult. The cause of the disease and the means of controlling it or curing it have been eluding the best medical brains for decades. If any task were to be called a challenge, this is it. It pens to call at your house asking you to help with the battle against muscular dystrophy, just take a good look at him and you'll see a man who's busy with his own job but can still find time to help his fellow citizens.

MINDEN YOUTH CHARGED AFTER FATAL CRASH HERE

A 20 year old Minden youth, Ross Kernohan, has been charged with dangerous driving and careless driving, as the result of an accident last Thursday evening which killed two Minden area youths.

Kernohan was alleged to have been driver of a car travelling with the car driven by 17 year old Douglas J. Crawford of Minden, which went out of control on the Minden by-pass and crashed killing Crawford and his 20 year old passenger, Byrnell Gilbert of Lochlin.

Police said the 1956 model car driven by Crawford, was north-bound on Highway 35, when it went out of control and crashed into a large rock. Both victims were thrown from the car, which was smashed beyond recognition.

Crown Attorney Lorne Jordan said Thursday Kernohan had been charged in connection with the fatal crash but did not indicate when he would appear in court on the charge.

1967 PONTIAC

The Grande Parisienne sport coup exemplifies the new elegance in styling achieved throughout the 1967 Pontiac line, which also includes a brand new series, the big and powerful 2 - 2, with an international sporting flavour. Luxurious Grande Parisienne has a completely redesigned front end, "hideaway" lights, and sleeker roofline. Popular Parisienne has a new distinctive, graceful silhouette. The Laurentian and Strato-Chief series feature deep, massive wraparound bumpers, curved side windows and over and under headlights. Optional, extra cost engines are an Astro-Flame 275-hp V8, Astro-Jet 325-hp V8, and Jet-Flame 385-hp V8.

Available in two series — Beaumont and Custom — and in nine models.

A wide variety of distinctive appearance and equipment options permit "personalizing" to the most individual taste — such as the SS 350 option which creates the Super Sport Coupe, a performance machine combining distinguishing appearance with an exclusive Turbo Fire 350-cu. in., 295-hp V8 engine with four-barrel carburetion, and heavy duty chassis components.

1967 CHEVROLET IMPALA

The 1967 regular Chevrolet line, with 17 models in five series, offers a diversity of choice never before achieved in the automobile industry. The 1967 Chevrolets, well represented by the sleek Impala sports coup, retain their luxury car proportions along with an elegant new look. Front fenders, hood, grille, lower body side panels, rear quarter and rear fenders all have new styling. This year's Chevrolet offers a choice of 16 power teams, ranging from a 155-hp six to a 385-hp V8.
